Efforts will be made at each Division to minimize schedule redundancy between tournaments and to maximize competition between teams if you participate in all three. Gate fees will be charged at each event and pro-rated refunds will be provided if weather limits play to less than 3 Games during the event weekends

For those teams wanting to take advantage of the three tournament discount of $600, you will note the registration for all three will be routed to the primary contact for the Echoes Early Bird Round Robin no later than March 15th. Individual registration for any one or two of the tournaments will be sent directly to the contact noted for each of those events on the attached Registration Form.
